21. (1) Stop what you are doing. Don't touch the weapon. (2) Get out of the area immediately. Don't wait to see what happens or try to talk a friend into leaving with you. (3) Tell an adult.
22. Possible answer: Daryl could join a school club, sports team, or neighborhood organization. He could also volunteer in the community.
23. Possible answer: Nina could use the Steps for Resolving Conflicts to avoid violence. First she could explain how she feels about a situation. Then Nina could talk with others, listening to their points of view. Nina could work with her friends to think of a solution that lets both sides win the argument.
24. Possible answer: Anger management classes are likely to include exercises or role-playing that gives students practice communicating their points of view and discussing opposing points of view without yelling, name calling, or threatening. There might be class exercises in listening, as well as problem-solving exercises.
25. Check students' answers.
